|--|--|--|
| 1. Praise to the Holiest in the height, and in the depth be praise:
in all his words most wonderful, most sure in all his ways. | 3. O wisest love, that flesh and blood, which did in Adam fail, should strive afresh against the foe, should strive and should prevail; | 5. O generous love, that he who smote in Man for man the foe, the double agony in Man for man should undergo. | | 2. O loving wisdom of our God, when all was sin and shame, a second Adam to the fight and to the rescue came. | 4. and that a higher gift than grace should flesh and blood refine, God's presence and his very self,
and essence all-divine. | 6. and in the garden secretly, and on the Cross on high, should teach his brethren, and inspire to suffer and to die. |

J.H. Newman (1801-90)

7. Praise to the Ho - liest in the height, and in the depth be praise:

in all his words most won-der-ful, most sure in all his ways.
